Revision No.	Date Issued	Prepared By	Approved	Comments
1	April 2013	KJH	L&M	Revision of Policy in line with NAHT guidance
2	July 2014	KJH		Revision of Policy in line with Federation with Nettlestone Primary School.
3	January 2017	KJH	L&M	Revision of Policy in light of DFE Advice ‘Best Practice for School Complaints Procedures’ Some amendments made to model letters.

All the governors and staff at the Federation of Nettlestone & Newchurch Primary Schools are committed to sharing a common objective to help keep the children and staff of the Federation safe. We ensure that consistent effective safeguarding procedures are in place in order to support families, children and staff of the Federation. This policy should be read in conjunction with the Federation Child Protection Policy which can be found in the Policies section on the school website.

It is the policy of the Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary Schools to resolve a complaint at the earliest possible stage and to take seriously any informal concern that is raised. All complaints will be notified to the school Complaints Co-ordinator and all communication/meetings will be recorded to evidence progress and how the procedure has been followed. The Complaints Co-ordinator will keep a timeline of actions in relation to the complaint, in case a panel hearing is required.

This procedure does not apply to the following complaints, for which there are separate procedures:

- School Admissions
- Special Educational Needs Assessments (SEND)
- School re-organisation proposals
- Child Protection
- Exclusion
- Whistleblowing
- Staff grievance and disciplinary procedures
- Complaints about services provided by other providers who may use the school’s premises or facilities

The school will not respond to anonymous complaints, but in such a case, the Headteacher and/or Chair of Governors will consider whether the issue and fear of identification are genuine or the issue is one of child protection.

Throughout this procedure all those involved will be sensitive to and comply with the nine protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010. Every effort will be made to meet the required timescales, but should an extension be necessary at any part of the procedure, all parties will be notified and given a reason for the delay.

The Legal Framework

Section 29 of the 2002 Education Act requires governing bodies to establish procedures for dealing with all complaints relating to the school or the provision of facilities or services, other than "complaints which fall to be dealt with in accordance with procedures required to be established by other statutory provision", and to publicise these procedures.

While the majority of complaints received by schools are properly dealt with by other procedures, it is still necessary for schools to have a "general" procedure for the minority of complaints that are not covered by other statutory procedures.

Section 496 of the 1996 Act allows a person to complain to the Secretary of State that a Governing Body (or LA) has acted, or is proposing to act, unreasonably with respect to any power conferred or duty imposed by that Act. Such a complaint is unlikely to be successful where a school can show that it has acted reasonably in seeking to resolve a complaint and has used a "fair" procedure.

School Complaints Procedure

General Principles:

- This procedure is intended to allow you to raise a concern or complaint relating to the school, or the services that it provides.
- An anonymous concern or complaint will not be investigated under this procedure, unless there are exceptional circumstances.
- To enable a proper investigation, concerns or complaints should be brought to the attention of the school as soon as possible. In general, any matter raised more than 3 months after the event, being complained of, will not be considered.

Raising a concern or complaint

Informal Stage

It is normally appropriate to communicate directly with the member of staff concerned. This may be by letter, by telephone or in person by appointment, requested via the school office. Many concerns can be resolved by simple clarification or the provision of information and it is anticipated that most complaints will be resolved by this informal stage.

A parent or any other person (the complainant) can raise an initial concern with a member of staff at the school. The member of staff will take note and seek to identify the outcome that the complainant would hope to achieve and/or a resolution. If the member of staff first contacted cannot immediately deal with the matter, s/he will make a clear note of the date, name, contact address or phone number and will agree a timescale for contact to be made with the complainant (normally 3 working school days). The member of staff will notify the Complaints Co-ordinator, who will follow up with the member of staff or pass the details to another appropriate member of staff for action and to make contact with the complainant within the agreed timescale.

The school will respect the views of a complainant who indicates that he/she would have difficulty in discussing a complaint with a particular member of staff. Similarly, if a member of staff directly involved feels too compromised to deal with a complaint, the Complaints Co-ordinator can refer the complainant, with the approval of the compromised member of staff, to another member of staff. The member of staff may be more senior but does not have to be.

The ability to consider the complaint confidentially, objectively and impartially is crucial. The member of staff dealing with the complaint will seek to reach a resolution and/or provide a response within 10 working school days.

If this is not achieved, the complainant will be given a copy of the school complaints procedure and asked to complete the school complaints form (appendix B) and to return this to the Headteacher, Chair of Governors, or Clerk to Governors within 10 working school days. If the complainant is unable to complete the form, an alternative means of submitting the complaint (including the nature of the complaint and the desired outcome) will be agreed.

If the first approach is made to a governor, the governor must refer the complainant back to the appropriate person (or to the Chair of Governors if the concern is about the Headteacher or a governor) and advise them about the procedure. Governors must not act unilaterally on an individual complaint outside the formal procedure or be involved at the early stages in case they are needed to sit on a panel at a later stage of the procedure.

In the case of serious concerns it may be appropriate to address them directly to the Head of School or Executive Headteacher (or to the Chair of the Governing Body, if the complaint is about the Executive Headteacher).

If you are uncertain about who to contact, please seek advice from the school office or the Clerk to the governing body.

Formal Stage

If your concern or complaint is not resolved at the informal stage you may choose to put the complaint in writing and pass it to the Head of School, who will be responsible for ensuring that it is investigated appropriately. If the complaint is about the Head of School, your complaint should be passed to the Executive Headteacher. If your complaint is about the Executive Headteacher you should direct your complaint to the Clerk to the governing body, for the attention of the Chair of the governing body.

A complaint form is provided to assist you.

You should include details which might assist the investigation, such as names of potential witnesses, dates and times of events, and copies of relevant documents.

It is very important that you include a clear statement of the actions that you would like the school to take to resolve your concern. Without this, it is much more difficult to proceed.

Please pass the completed form, in a sealed envelope to the relevant school office. The envelope should be addressed to the Head of School, Executive Headteacher or to the Clerk to the governing body, as appropriate.

The Head of School, Executive Headteacher (or chair) may invite you to a meeting to clarify your concerns and to explore the possibility of an informal resolution. If you accept that invitation, you may be accompanied by a friend, if you wish, to assist you in explaining the nature of your concerns.

It is possible that your complaint will be resolved through a meeting with the Head of School, Executive Headteacher (or chair). If not, arrangements will be made for the matter to be fully investigated, using the appropriate procedure. In any case you should learn in writing, usually within 5 working days of the school receiving your formal complaint, of how the school intends to proceed. This notification should include an indication of the anticipated timescale.

Any investigation will begin as soon as possible and when it has been concluded, you will be informed in writing of its conclusion.

If you are not satisfied with the manner in which the process has been followed, you may request that the governing body reviews the process followed by the school, in handling the complaint. Any such request must be made in writing to the Clerk to the governing body, within 10 school days of receiving notice of the outcome, and include a statement specifying any perceived failures to follow the procedure. The procedure described below will be followed. A Review Request form is provided for your convenience.

Review Process

Any review of the process followed by the school will be conducted by a panel of 3 members of the governing body who were not party to the initial complaint and will therefore be impartial. This will usually take place within 10 school days of receipt of your request.

The review will normally be conducted through a consideration of written submissions, but reasonable requests to make oral representations should be considered sympathetically.

The school and governing body take any complaint seriously. Therefore I have initiated an immediate investigation. It is possible that the investigator will wish to meet with you to clarify the evidence that you have provided so far. If so he/she will write to you to make suitable arrangements.

As your concerns relate to the conduct/capability of a member of staff, the investigation will be carried out under the school's personnel procedures. This means that the detail of the procedure and its outcome must remain confidential to the school and the member of staff concerned.

OR

As your concerns relate to the behaviour of a pupil, the investigation will be carried out under the school's pupil conduct and disciplinary procedures. This means that the detail of the procedure and its outcome must remain confidential to the school and to the parents of the child concerned.

In due course, I may be able to provide you with some information about the outcomes of the investigation and the processes that have been followed, but in any event will let you know when the matter has been concluded.

Due to the nature of these procedures, their outcome must remain strictly confidential. We are confident, however, that the circumstances that gave rise to your complaint should not recur

OR

- In order to address fully the matters of concern that you identified, the panel recommended that the governing body should review its policy, as a matter of urgency. We are confident that this should prevent similar concerns arising in future.
