

In Art I learned about Roman mosaics and made my own using clay. I used my maths learning to work out how many tiles I needed to make and how many of each colour.

In music I learnt how to play the glockenspiel and made up our own compositions.

I took part in a workshop with the author Peter J Murray author of the Mokee Joe series.

I participated in making a crown to wear at school and took part in singing the National Anthem to mark the 70th anniversary of the accession of Queen Elizabeth II on 6 February 1952.

In PSHE I took part in learning about keeping myself safe. I have taken part in identifying learning about risks, hazards and dangers, including keeping safe online.

I took part in internet safety day. I found out how to stay safe online.

I took part in a virtual workshop on mental health and other activities during the children's mental health week. The theme was growing together.

In R.E I can describe what good and evil is and define what it is in my own life and how it is expressed by people living within specific religions.
