

Learning to keep trying even when a challenge arises

Learning new rhymes and joining in with actions

Talk to both peers and adults about what we like and dislike

Continuing to have a go to supporting our own self-care and independence

Using Zones of Regulation daily

Try new foods and talk about likes and dislikes

Understanding the importance of healthy foods

Be more independent in our own choices and how they affect others around us

Understand the importance of keeping our environment tidy and safe

Learning to keep trying even when a challenge arises

Joining in with new activities

Understanding and managing sudden changes in routine

Curriculum Vision Overview

Spring 1 Pre-School

Learning the importance of listening to others

Understanding the importance of keeping our environment tidy and safe

I can explore and talk about the world around me

Understand how we can help others by being a friend

Continuing to Looking after our environment, helping to pack away and keep our environment tidy.

